Complaint of the ryots of Uppalalli village in the Chikmagalur Taluk complaining of a reduction of a monthly Muzrai grant allowed to certain temples there.

From

The Deputy Commissioner, Kadur Dt.

Letter No. 329 Dated 29th October 1905.

X No 133 d/31/1/06

A petition was addressed to the Revenue Commr. in Mysore by the ryots of the Uppalalli village complaining of a reduction of a monthly Muzrai grant allowed to certain temples in the village. The petition which was transferred to this office for disposal was referred to the Dy Commr. for report vide as follows:

(1) The first complaint is petitioners is that the income derived from the Inam lands endowed to Rameswara Devaru & the temples is not utilized for the benefit of the temples. With regard to this the Dy: Commr. reports that the savings of Rs 685-7-6 effected from the proceeds of the Inam lands attached to these temples have been credited to the funds of these Institutions and the Pujari of these Institutions was paid from the income of the Inam lands up to the year 1892. A bill has separately been

(2) The disrepaired condition of the temples and repairs needed thereto.

With regard to this the Dy. Commr. states that the Rameswara Devaru is a tiled building of one ankana the temple of Someswara is a stone Mantapam surrounded by a parapet & the Devaderamma Devaru temple is of one ankana built of stone. The residents pray that the 1st & 2nd temples which have into disrepair and have been in this this state for many years past may be repaired and that the 3rd temple which is sufficiently strong might with advantage be extended by 2 Ankanams. The Dy: Commr states that the Amildar has been directed to inspect these temples and to submit estimates for necessary repairs which will be submitted to this Office for sanction in due course.

(3) Non disbursement of Rs arrears of pay to the Pujari

With regard to this complaint Dy: Commr invites reference to his Letter No 137 dy 22nd August 1905 submitting for sanction a bill for Rs 260/- on this account

(4) Lastly as regards the of the allowances to the Chen

Sir,

Adverting to your docket No. 4.4.31 dated 29th May 905 forwarding an extract of a petition from some of the ryots of Uppahalli in the Chikmagalur Taluk, and calling for the submission of a detailed report on the points raised therein, I have the honor to report as follows:—

2. As regards the complaint that the income derived from Inam lands endorsed as Devaru and is not utilized utilized for the benefit of the temples, it is reported that the sanctuary of Rs 685-7-6 offered from the proceeds of the Inam lands, allocated to these temples, have been credited to the funds of these Institutions and the Pujaris of these Institutions was paid from the income of the Inam lands upto the year 1892.

3 The temple of Ramesware Devasam is a tiled building of one "ankanam". The temple of Someswara is a stone mandapam surrounded by a parapet. The temple of Dhanvantarimurthi Devasam which is of one ankam is built of stone. It is ated by the residents of the Uppahalli village that the 1st and 2nd temples have fallen into disrepair and have been in this state for many years past. They propose that the temples of Rameswara should be rebuilt with [redacted] stone and, until such repairs to the temple of Someswara might be carried out; and the temple of Devarayanadurga which is sufficiently strong might with advantage be extended by 2 antarams. The Elders of Chikmagalur has been directed to inspect temples and to submit ates for necessary which will be sanction is due.

dues' courses. A portion of the savings has been in fact already utilized for the reference of these temples

4. As regards non-disbursement of arrears of pay to the Peryasai, I beg to invite reference to my letter No 137 dated 22nd/23rd August 1905, soliciting a bill for Rs 2 lakhs for sanction

5. As regards the allowance which the Chandramoulesware and Anjaneya temples were getting from the Kadiri Amanchalt ram, I beg to state that the allowance appears to have been stopped on the strength of an executive order issued the office to the A of Kadiri on the 24th November 1903. I have now cancelled that order and directed the Amildar of Kadiri to renew payment of the monthly allowances of Rs 2-2-6 to the temples of Lakshmi Narasimha Swami and Anjeneya from the Kadiri Anjaneyaswami funds as per Government Proceedings No. 1046-55 dated 5th November 1903.

I have the honor to be,
